

Wüst und Wüst expands to St. Moritz.

Zurich/St. Moritz, December 5, 2022

Wüst und Wüst AG, the company specializing in the marketing of exclusive residential property is adding a branch office in St. Moritz to its existing locations in Küsnacht/Zurich (headquarters), Zug and Lucerne.

The expansion of Wüst und Wüst AG, a member of the family-owned Intercity Group, to St. Moritz meets a customer need. "With our presence in the Engadine, we can cover the second-home market in particular as the exclusive German-speaking Swiss partner of Christie's International Real Estate, the world's most important network for luxury real estate," says Wüst und Wüst CEO Beat Hürlimann.

Pascal Vaucher, a member of the board of directors of the family holding company, will head the Engadine branch of Wüst und Wüst AG. He has worked as an independent entrepreneur in wealth management for the past ten years and knows the wishes of exclusive clientele. His parents are owners of the Intercity Group and have been involved with exclusive real estate for as long as he can remember. "Wüst und Wüst also offers its clientele a unique network of relationships through its affiliation with the Intercity Group. I have a close family connection to the Engadine. I grew up in St. Moritz and in the USA. My great-grandfather Giovanni Testa once founded Switzerland's first ski school in St. Moritz," says Pascal Vaucher, explaining his Engadine roots.

Wüst und Wüst AG (wuw.ch) is a company of the family-owned Intercity Group and deals exclusively with the marketing of exclusive residential property. The competent and experienced teams at the branches in Küsnacht/Zurich, Zug, Lucerne and St. Moritz guarantee a high level of local market expertise. Through the exclusive partnership in German-speaking Switzerland with "Christie's International Real Estate" (christiesrealestate.com), "Wüst und Wüst" also has an excellent international network.
